The meeting was called pursuant to paragraph 2 of the Court Order in the above case.

It was determined by the meeting in Chambers that the procedure to be followed would be the following:-

1. Ideruge PL 259 Denigomodu has landowners descendant through three children of Amwano, namely Eibaoeda, Dargegauw and Bumagin. The members of each group, that is, those descendant from Eibaoeda, those descendant from Dargegauw and those descendant from Bumagin, are to meet in the first instance as an individual group with the Nauru Lands Committee and explain their position with respect to Ideruge PL 259 Denigomodu and in particular, MQ1.
2. The three groups are then to meet with the Nauru Lands Committee through one representative chosen from each group at which meeting decisions will be taken in relation to the future control to be exercised over Ideruge PL 259 and MQ1.
3. The Nauru Lands Committee are to transmit the decision or decisions to the Court. In the meantime, the daughter of the Plaintiff, will remain in occupancy of MQ1.
4. The above meetings are to take place within the next six weeks.

5. The Court is to send to the Nauru Lands Committee its judgment and order dated 9/06/05 for the Committee's information and guidance, and today's additional order.
6. The Nauru Lands Committee are to inform by notice all landowners of Ideruge of the date of their respective meetings.

I so order
