POLICY FOR PUBLIC SERVICE EMPLOYEES UNDER SCHOLARSHIP

It is notified for general information that Cabinet has review and approved the Nauru Public Service Scholarship Policy effective from Wednesday 11th May, 2016.

POLICY FOR PUBLIC SERVICE EMPLOYEES UNDER SCHOLARSHIP

Introduction

This policy provides the guidelines for public service employees to avail scholarships granted by Government, Donor Development Partner, or any private parties to study abroad and how they could help Nauru to benefit out of their studies.

This policy is in reference to the PSA (Public Service Act 2016) subdivision 8 section 77 subsection 4 (a) for public servants undertaking NPS scholarship under the supervision of the Chief Secretary's department.

Scope

The scope of this policy is to bring a guideline to grant additional sustainability financial support to the public servants opting for scholarships abroad and to ensure to bring their contributions back to the public service after their studies.

Scholarship Additional Financial Approver

The Financial allowance is for those employees who have already been selected for a scholarship. The approval shall be based on the facts submitted as per the selection criteria and as per the signed agreement with the Government of Nauru. Chief Secretary should submit the list of employees who have won scholarship to Cabinet for approval for the Financial Allowance.

Scholarship Additional Financial Aid Selections

The selections process for Employees is as follows.

1. Shall be a citizen of Nauru
2. Shall be permanent in public service
3. Shall not reprimanded for any disciplinary actions
4. Shall be a merited one
5. Shall be high on ethical grounds
6. Willingness to work for Government

G. N. No. 405 / 2016 (Cont'd)

The Financial allowance Selection is followed by an agreement to be signed by the Employee, Head of Department and the Chief Secretary. The financial allowance agreement shall be initially for one (1) year and which shall be extended after the Scholarships assessments conducted once every year. The agreement template is attached as Appendix 1.

Scholarship Additional Financial Aid

The Government would extend financial support over and above to their scholarship to each student under Public Service to receive an allowance based on the conditions and approved by Chief Secretary.

The allowance will be paid on fortnight basis to the Bendigo Bank account of Public Service Employees in Nauru.

Scholarship Additional Financial Aid Assessment and Renewals

The Chief Secretary shall review once every six (6) months to ascertain the progress of the study and recommend further course of action. The Employee shall submit the progress report once every six (6) months. The Performa of the progress report is as mentioned below. The Finance Minister and/or Chief Secretary shall extend the grant period, recommend for adjustments for Scholarship Additional Financial Aid terminations.
