INDEPENDENT STATE OF PAPUA NEW GUINEA.

CHAPTER NO. 16.

Migration Act.

Being an Act to repeal and re-enact the law relating to entry into the country.

1. Compliance with Constitutional requirements.

(1) This Act, to the extent that it regulates or restricts a right or freedom referred to in Subdivision III.3.C (qualified rights) of the Constitution, namely—

- (a) the freedom from arbitrary search and entry conferred by Section 44 of the Constitution; and
- (b) the right to privacy conferred by Section 49 of the Constitution, is a law that is made for that purpose.

(2) For the purposes of Section 29 of the Organic Law on Provincial Government, it is declared that this law relates to a matter of national interest.

2. Interpretation.

In this Act, unless the contrary intention appears—

“authorized person” means the person authorized by the Minister or Departmental Head to exercise a power or discharge a duty or function under this Act;

“child” includes a step child and lawfully adopted child;

“conveyance” means a vessel, aircraft and any other conveyance capable of being used to convey persons;

“dependant” means, in relation to a person, the spouse of that person, not living apart from that person under a decree of court or a deed of separation, and an unmarried child of that person under the age of 16 years;

“entry” means—

- (a) in the case of a person arriving in the country by sea or air at a proclaimed port—leaving the precincts of that port; and
- (b) in the case of any other arrival in the country—entry into the country by land, sea or air, but does not include an entry—

- (c) made for the purposes of complying with this Act; or
- (d) expressly or impliedly sanctioned by an officer for the purposes of an enquiry or detention under this Act;

“entry permit” means an entry permit issued under Section 4—

- (a) which has not expired, been cancelled or become invalid; and
- (b) which was not obtained or issued in consequence of fraud or misrepresentation or the concealment or non-disclosure, whether intentional or inadvertent, of a material fact or circumstance;

“holder” means, in relation to an entry permit, a person permitted by that entry permit to enter the country;

“member of the crew” means a person employed in the working of a conveyance;

"officer" means—

- (a) the Departmental Head; or
- (b) an officer employed in the Migration and Citizenship Branch of the Department; or
- (c) an officer for the purposes of the Customs Act; or
- (d) a District Officer; or
- (e) a commissioned officer of the Police Force; or
- (f) a person authorized by the Minister to perform consular duties on behalf of the State outside the country;

"passenger" means a person carried in a conveyance, other than a member of the crew;

"passport" includes a document of identity issued from official sources, whether inside or outside the country, and having the characteristics of a passport;

"person in charge" means—

- (a) in relation to a vessel—the master or person (except a pilot) having for the time being control or charge; and
- (b) in relation to an aircraft—the pilot; and
- (c) in the case of any other conveyance—the person having for the time being control or charge;

"precincts of the port" means that part of the port at which customs and immigration formalities are conducted;

"proclaimed port" means—

- (a) an aerodrome or a port within the meaning of the Customs Act; or
- (b) any place proclaimed by the Minister by notice in the National Gazette to be a proclaimed port;

"repealed Act" means the Act specified in Schedule 1;

"removal order" means an order made under Section 12(1);

"this Act" includes the regulations.

"vessel" includes a ship or boat or other description of craft used in navigation.

3. Prohibition on entry without entry permit.

No person, other than a citizen, shall enter the country unless he is the holder of an entry permit.

4. Issue of entry permit.

(1) A person seeking an entry permit shall apply for it in the prescribed manner.

(2) An officer or authorized person, on receipt of an application made under Subsection (1), may issue an entry permit.

(3) An entry permit may be issued to a person before he has entered the country or after he has entered the country.

5. Conditions of entry.

An officer or authorized person may—

- (a) issue an entry permit subject to conditions; and

- (b) during the currency of an entry permit—
  - (i) make it subject to conditions; and
  - (ii) vary or cancel conditions to which it is subject.

6. Cancellation of entry permit and Committee of Review.

(1) The Minister may cancel an entry permit by written notice under his hand served on the holder of the permit personally or by registered post.

(2) Subject to Subsection (8), where a notice served under Subsection (1) relates to an entry permit issued for a period of more than six months, the person on whom the notice was served may, within seven days of the receipt of the notice, by written application to the Minister, request that the cancellation of the entry permit be reviewed by a Committee of Review.

(3) On the receipt of an application made under Subsection (2), the Minister shall inform the Prime Minister of the application and the Prime Minister shall, as soon as practicable, appoint a Committee of Review, consisting of three Ministers, to consider the application.

(4) On the appointment of a Committee of Review under Subsection (3), the Minister shall submit to the Committee the application and all information relevant to the applicant, his entry and stay in the country, and the reasons for the cancellation of his entry permit.

(5) After considering the application and information submitted to it under Subsection (4), and after making any inquiries or investigations it considers necessary, the Committee of Review shall confirm the cancellation of the entry permit or recommend that its cancellation be revoked.

(6) A Committee of Review may recommend that the revocation of a cancellation of an entry permit be subject to conditions.

(7) A Committee of Review shall report its recommendations to the Minister who shall take all such action as may be necessary to implement those recommendations.

(8) Where the Minister in a notice served under Subsection (1) states that the cancellation of the entry permit is for a breach of a condition imposed following a recommendation made in accordance with Subsection (6), the person on whom the notice is served shall have no right to apply to have the cancellation reviewed under Subsection (2).

7. Unlawful presence in country.

(1) Subject to Subsection (2), the presence of a person, other than a citizen, in the country, is unlawful if—

- (a) he is not the holder of an entry permit; or
- (b) he evaded an officer for the purposes of entering the country.

(2) The presence of a person in the country is not unlawful if he is leaving the country in accordance with Section 9(3).

8. Power to refuse entry.

(1) Notwithstanding the possession of an entry permit, a person other than a citizen may, on arrival at the country or on reporting to an officer in accordance with Section 9(1), be refused entry if—

- (a) he is unable to satisfy an officer that he has the means to support himself, and any accompanying dependant during his proposed stay in the country; or

- (b) he is, in the opinion of an officer, suffering—
  - (i) from a mental illness; or
  - (ii) from a disease which would make his presence in the country a danger to the community; or
- (c) he refuses to submit to a medical examination after being required to do so under Subsection (2); or
- (d) he is not in possession of a valid passport.

(2) An officer may, for the purposes of forming an opinion under Subsection (1)(b), require a person seeking to enter the country to submit himself to a medical examination by a medical practitioner, or detain him for that purpose.

9. Duties of persons arriving in country.

(1) A person arriving at a proclaimed port from another country and seeking to enter the country shall appear before an officer.

(2) A person appearing before an officer in accordance with Subsection (1) shall give to that officer any information the officer may require.

(3) A person refused permission to enter the country after appearing before an officer in accordance with Subsection (1)—

- (a) if he arrived by vessel and is still aboard the vessel—shall not disembark; or
- (b) if he arrived by vessel and disembarked for the purpose of appearing before the officer—
  - (i) shall return to the vessel; or
  - (ii) if the vessel has sailed—
    - (A) shall not depart from the precincts of the port except to a place approved by an officer; and
    - (B) shall leave the country by the first available means in accordance with any instructions given by an officer.

(4) A person refused permission to enter the country after appearing before an officer in accordance with Subsection (1)—

- (a) if he arrived by aircraft—shall return to the aircraft; or
- (b) if he arrived by aircraft and the aircraft has departed or there is not room on it for him—
  - (i) shall not depart from the precincts of the port except to a place approved by an officer; and
  - (ii) shall leave the country by the first available means in accordance with any instructions given by an officer.

10. Prevention of unlawful presence.

(1) An officer shall prevent a person from entering or remaining in the country in contravention of this Act.

(2) Where a person has entered or remained in the country in contravention of this Act, an officer shall—

- (a) return that person to the conveyance in which he arrived in the country and keep him there until its departure from the country; or
- (b) obtain a removal order in respect of that person; or

- (c) arrest that person and keep him in custody pending his prosecution under this Act.

11. Power to interrogate.

- (1) An officer may interrogate a person whose presence in the country he reasonably believes to be unlawful.
- (2) A person interrogated by an officer acting in accordance with Subsection (1) shall—
  - (a) fully and truthfully answer all questions put to him which tend, directly or indirectly, to establish his identity, nationality or occupation; and
  - (b) disclose and produce to the officer all documents in his possession or under his control relating to those matters.
- (3) All answers given or documents produced in accordance with Subsection (2) shall be admissible in evidence in proceedings under this Act against the person making or producing them.

12. Removal orders.

- (1) The Minister may order the removal from the country of—
  - (a) a person whose presence in the country is unlawful; and
  - (b) at the further discretion of the Minister—any dependants of such a person.
- (2) A removal order shall—
  - (a) be served on the person to be removed; and
  - (b) state a period from the date of service within which the person or dependants to be removed shall be removed or shall remove himself or themselves from the country.
- (3) The Minister may vary or revoke a removal order.

13. Power to detain and remove persons from country.

- (1) The Minister may order that a person against whom a removal order has been made be detained in custody until arrangements can be made for his removal from the country.
- (2) A person against whom a removal order has been made may—
  - (a) if he has not removed himself from the country within the period stated in the order; or
  - (b) if he is being detained in accordance with an order made under Subsection (1),be placed on board a suitable conveyance by an officer, and may be detained in that conveyance until it leaves the country.
- (3) A person against whom a removal order has been made may be removed to any country which is under an obligation to receive him or to any country to which he consents to be removed if the government of that country agrees to receive him.
- (4) A person in charge of a conveyance going to a country to which a person is to be removed shall receive that person on board and on proper payment being made convey him to that country and give him accommodation and maintenance during the passage.
- (5) Subject to Section 14, the cost of the passage, accommodation and maintenance provided in accordance with Subsection (4) shall be paid by the person removed and the Minister may apply money or property of the person removed in payment of the whole or

- (b) may be renewed by an authorized officer for such periods, each not exceeding six months, as the officer thinks proper.

10. Issue of passports, etc., to citizens of Commonwealth countries.

(1) The Minister or an authorized officer may issue a passport or other document of identity for travel purposes to a person who is a citizen of a country that is a member of the Commonwealth of Nations.

(2) An application for a passport or other certificate of identity under Subsection (1) shall—

- (a) be in the form approved by the Minister; and
- (b) be accompanied by such evidence in relation to the application as the Minister or the authorized officer to whom the application is made requires.

(3) A passport issued under this section—

- (a) remains valid for a period of six months from the date of its issue; and
- (b) shall not be renewed.

(4) A document of identity for travel purposes, other than a passport, issued under this section—

- (a) remains valid for such period, not exceeding six months from the date of its issue, as the Minister or the authorized officer to whom the application is made thinks proper; and
- (b) may be renewed for such periods, each not exceeding six months, as the Minister or the authorized officer to whom the application for renewal is made thinks proper.

11. Issue of visas.

(1) An application for a visa shall—

- (a) be in the form approved by the Minister; and
- (b) be accompanied by such evidence in relation to the application as the Minister or the authorized officer to whom the application is made requires.

(2) The Minister or an authorized officer may, after satisfying himself that—

- (a) there is no reasonable ground for refusing the application; and
- (b) the applicant qualifies for the issue of an entry permit under the Migration Act, issue a visa by making an entry, in the form approved by the Minister, on the passport, certificate or other official travel document of the applicant.

(3) A visa may be issued—

- (a) for a single entry only; or
- (b) for multiple entries within such period, during the currency of the applicant's passport, certificate or other travel document, as the Minister determines.

(4) For the purposes of this section, an application for an entry permit under the Migration Act shall be deemed to be an application for a visa.

12. Fees.

Subject to Section 13, fees are payable in accordance with the Schedule.

13. Exemptions from payment of fees.

The Minister may exempt from the payment of fees—

- (a) Ministers and other government officials travelling outside the country on official business; and
- (b) the spouse and children of a Minister or other government official referred to in Paragraph (a) where the spouse or child is—
  - (i) accompanying; or
  - (ii) travelling in order to join, the Minister or official; and
- (c) any person who satisfies the Minister that he is travelling in a public capacity; and
- (d) any person in respect of whom the Minister is of the opinion that because special circumstances exist it is not desirable to charge fees.

Migration Regulation.

MADE under the Migration Act.

1. Application for entry permit.

A person seeking an entry permit shall—

- (a) complete an application in Form 1; and
- (b) send the application with his passport to an authorized person.

2. Grant of entry permit.

An entry permit shall be—

- (a) in Form 2 and shall be stamped in the holder's passport; or
- (b) in the case where the permit is issued subject to conditions with or without a statement of the purpose for which it is issued—in Form 3 and may be stamped in the holder's passport.

3. Extension of period of validity.

(1) A holder of an entry permit seeking the extension of the period of validity of that permit shall—

- (a) complete an application in Form 4; and
- (b) send the form and—
  - (i) his passport; or
  - (ii) where the entry permit is not contained in a passport—the document in which his entry permit is contained,to an authorized person.

(2) A permit extending the period of validity of an entry permit shall be in Form 5 and shall be stamped in—

- (a) the holder's passport; or
- (b) the holder's document sent under Subsection (1)(b)(ii).

4. Holder of entry permit to enter within six months.

Unless an authorized person otherwise directs, an entry permit issued to a person not in the country at the time of issue shall become invalid unless the holder enters the country within six months of the issue of the permit.

5. Entry permit exemption stamp.

The stamp which may be placed in the passport of a person permitted to enter and remain in the country without an entry permit shall be in Form 6.

6. Arrival cards.

(1) A person entering the country from another country shall—

- (a) on arrival, complete an arrival card and hand it to an officer; or

(b) before arrival, complete an arrival card and hand it to a member of the crew of the conveyance on which travel to the country is being made.

(2) An arrival card shall be in Form 7.

7. Departure cards.

(1) A person leaving the country for another country shall before leaving complete a departure card and hand it to an officer.

(2) A departure card shall be in Form 8.

8. Return in respect of person failing to continue his journey.

The person in charge, or the owner or his agent, of a conveyance which brings to the country a passenger whose destination is outside the country, shall, before that conveyance leaves the country, inform an officer at a proclaimed port if that passenger fails to return to the conveyance to continue the journey.

9. Return in respect of absent crew member.

The person in charge, or the owner or his agent, of a conveyance which is leaving the country for another country shall, before that conveyance leaves the country, inform an officer at a proclaimed port if a member of the crew has failed to return to the conveyance.

10. Requirement of onward ticket, etc.

(1) An officer may require a person seeking to enter or remain in the country—

(a) to produce to him a ticket entitling that person to a confirmed passage by sea or air to another country, together with evidence of authority to enter that country; and

(b) to possess that ticket at all times until he leaves the country.

(2) For the purpose of guaranteeing compliance with Subsection (1)(b) an officer may stamp a ticket with a stamp in Form 9.

(3) A person who, without the consent of an officer or authorized person—

(a) cancels, varies, or transfers a ticket stamped in accordance with Subsection (2); or

(b) accepts a cancellation, or allows a variation or transfer of a ticket stamped in accordance with Subsection (2); or

(c) obtains or gives a refund in respect of a ticket stamped in accordance with Subsection (2), is guilty of an offence.

11. Requirement of deposit.

(1) An officer or authorized person may require a person seeking to enter or remain in the country to deposit a sum not exceeding K1 000.00 with the State.

(2) A sum, or its balance, deposited under Subsection (1), shall be refunded when an officer or authorized person considers it is no longer necessary to retain it.

12. Requirement for maintenance guarantee.

(1) An officer or authorized person may, in respect of a person seeking to enter or remain in the country, require some other person to enter into a maintenance guarantee, with or without sureties, in a sum not exceeding K1 000.00.

(2) A maintenance guarantee shall be in Form 10.

(3) A maintenance guarantee shall remain enforceable until an officer or authorized person is satisfied that the State can incur no liability in respect of a person covered by it.

(4) A maintenance guarantee shall have effect notwithstanding that it is under the hand of the guarantor and not sealed.

13. Offences and penalties.

(1) A person who fails to comply with an obligation under this Regulation is guilty of an offence.

(2) The penalty for an offence under this Regulation is a fine not exceeding K1 000.00 or imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months.
