 "Minister" means the Minister for the time being charged with responsibility for Finance.

PART II

ESTABLISHMENT OF THE CORPORATION, PURPOSES, FUNCTIONS AND POWERS

3. (1) There shall be established for the purposes of this Act, a body to be known as the Investment Corporation of Solomon Islands (hereinafter referred to as "the Corporation") which shall be a body corporate to which the provisions of Part VII of the Interpretation and General Provisions Act shall apply. Establishment of the investment Corporation of Solomon Islands
Cap. 85

First Schedule

(2) The provisions of the First Schedule shall have effect as to the constitution of the Corporation and otherwise in relation thereto.

Functions of the Corporation

4. The functions of the Corporation shall be —

(a) to implement Government policy with regard to public sector participation in commercial investment;

(b) to manage and administer the Government's commercial investment portfolio;

(c) to promote, partake in, identify and initiate commercial investment in Solomon Islands in accordance with Government's commercial investment policies; and

(d) to perform and promote such other functions in relation to commercial investment in Solomon Islands, as the Minister may direct.

Powers of the Corporation

5. (1) Subject to the provisions of subsections (2) and (3), the Corporation shall have powers to do anything which is calculated to facilitate the discharge of its functions, or is incidental or conducive to their discharge.

(2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the provisions of subsection (1), the Corporation may —

(a) acquire, hold and dispose of securities other than equity;

(b) act as agent for other persons or appoint agents on its behalf;

(c) enter into agreements or arrangements with any person or institution, whether national or international, providing participation, assistance or co-operation with its activities;

(d) assist or provide advisory, consultancy, managerial, secretarial, financial, accountancy or other related services;

(e) invest moneys on call or for fixed or limited periods;

(f) acquire and dispose of movable or immovable property; and

(g) establish and maintain reserve funds to meet contingencies and for such other purposes as it may think fit.

(3) Subject to the provisions of this Act and to the approval of the Minister, the Corporation may —

(a) form subsidiary corporations in compliance with the Companies Act to carry on any activities which the Corporation has power under this Act to carry on;

(b) form partnerships and enter into joint-ventures;

(c) purchase and dispose of equity or other commercial interests in companies, partnerships, enterprises or joint-ventures;

(d) make or grant loans to enterprises in which it holds a commercial interest;

(e) borrow moneys and issue securities, including guarantees, debentures, stock, bonds, bills or other promissory notes;

(f) issue shares;

(g) establish and manage unit trusts and make available such unit trusts to the public; and

(h) act as a trustee or shareholder on behalf of statutory authorities, agencies or other organisations.

6. In the exercise of its functions and powers, the Corporation shall have regard to the highest principles of prudence and probity in its stewardship of public funds.

Operating principles

7. (1) There shall be established for the purposes of this Act, a Board of Directors of the Corporation which shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, be responsible for the policy and general administration of the affairs of the Corporation.

Establishment of the Board of Directors

(2) The provisions of the Second Schedule shall have effect as to the constitution of the Board and otherwise in relation thereto.

Second Schedule

8. The Minister may, after consultation with the Chairman, give to the Board such directions of a general character as to the policy to be followed by the Board in the performance of its functions as appear to the Minister to be necessary and the Board shall give effect thereto.

Powers of the Minister to issue general directions on matters of policy

PART III

9. (1) The authorised capital of the Corporation shall be one hundred million dollars divided into one hundred million shares of one dollar each.

Share capital and its increase

(2) The Board may from time to time, with the prior approval of the Minister, by resolution of the shareholders, increase the share capital of the Corporation by new shares of such amount as the Board thinks expedient.

Issue of shares

10. Subject to the provisions of this section, the Board may allot the share capital of the Corporation —

(a) to the Government, in shares equivalent to the Government's contribution to the capital of the Corporation; and

(b) with the prior approval of the Minister to —

(i) any body corporate established by law in Solomon Islands;

(ii) any international financial institution; or

(iii) any provincial or local government authority,

so however, that the Government shall at all times hold the majority of the voting shares.

Disposal of shares

11. Shares may be sold or otherwise disposed of —

(a) with the approval of the Minister at face value; or

(b) in accordance with any written agreement made at the time of acquiring such shares.

Record of ownership of shares to be maintained

12. The General Manager shall at all times —

(a) maintain a record of the ownership of the shares; and

(b) notify the Minister and the Board of any change in the ownership of shares.

Share
redemption

13. The Board may, with the approval of the Minister, elect to reduce the share capital on issue subject to the repurchase of shares being made at face value from all shareholders in proportion to their shareholding.

Liability of holder

14. The liability of a holder of shares in the share capital shall be limited to the amount (if any) unpaid on the shares held by him.

Dividends
9 of 1995, s. 2

15. (1) Subject to the provisions of subsection (2), the Board may, unless the Minister otherwise directs, distribute by way of dividends not more than half the Corporation's operating surplus from any financial year.

(2) Where the Board is satisfied that it could distribute profits in excess of half the previous year's surplus, it shall submit a proposal to the Minister for his approval and any such distribution shall be in such a manner and on conditions as the Minister thinks fit.

Annual estimates

16. (1) The Corporation shall in each financial year, not later than three months before the commencement of the next financial year submit to the Minister for his approval its estimates of revenue and expenditure for the ensuing financial year.

(2) The estimates submitted to the Minister pursuant to subsection (1) shall as far as practicable include details of domestic and overseas borrowing requirements in relation to all enterprises of the Corporation for the ensuing financial year.

(3) The Minister may either approve such estimates subject to such reservations, if any, as he may consider necessary, or reject such estimates.

(4) Where the Minister rejects or does not approve the estimates submitted to him before the commencement of the next financial year, the Corporation may continue its recurrent operations at the same level as the previous year and continue ongoing borrowing and investment programmes, so however, that it shall not increase levels of recurrent expenditure, or undertake any new investments or borrowings until such time as the estimates are approved by the Minister.

Annual reports

17. (1) The Chairman of the Corporation shall in each year submit to the Minister a report of its activities during the previous year.

(2) The Minister shall lay before Parliament a copy of the annual report.

Accounts and audit

18. (1) The Corporation shall keep proper accounts and other records in relation to its business and shall prepare annually a statement of accounts in a form satisfactory to the Minister, being a form which conforms with established accounting principles.

(2) The accounts of the Corporation shall be audited annually by an auditor appointed by the Corporation and approved by the Auditor-General.

(3) The Corporation shall on receipt of the audited statement of accounts submit to the Minister a copy of such statement together with any report made by the auditor.

(4) The Board shall cause a copy of the audited annual statement of accounts together with the auditor's report to be distributed to all shareholders.

(5) The Minister shall cause a copy of the annual statement of accounts together with the auditor's report to be laid before Parliament.

Exemption from taxation and stamp duties

19. (1) The income and revenues of the Corporation shall not be subject to taxation under any law.

(2) All instruments executed by or on behalf of the Corporation shall be exempt from stamp duty.

PART IV

Secrecy

21. (1) All members of the Board, employees of the Corporation and all directors or chairmen appointed by the Corporation to subsidiary corporations or other companies shall not either directly or indirectly, except in the performance of a duty under or in connection with this Act, divulge or communicate to any person, any information concerning the affairs of the Corporation or of any subsidiary corporation or company, as the case may be.

(2) Any person who contravenes the provisions of this section shall be guilty of an offence and on conviction be liable to a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars or a term of imprisonment not exceeding six months.

Regulations

22. The Minister may, after consultation with the Board, make regulations generally for the proper carrying out of the provisions and purposes of this Act, and in particular, but without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, may make regulations —

(a) for the guidance of directors appointed by the Corporation to enterprises in which the Corporation holds commercial interest; and

(b) for the procedure to be followed and the form and manner in which information relating to the Corporation's affairs is to be reported.

Repeal and savings
No 12 of 1977

23. (1) The Government Shareholding Agency Act (hereinafter referred to as the repealed Act) is hereby repealed.

(2) Notwithstanding such repeal from and after the date of coming into operation of this Act —

(a) all assets and liabilities of the former Agency immediately prior to that date shall be transferred to and vest in the Corporation without further assurance, and the Corporation shall have all the powers necessary to take possession of, recover and deal with such assets and discharge such liabilities;

(b) every agreement in writing and every deed, bond or other instrument to which the former Agency was a party immediately before that date shall have effect as if the Corporation were a party;

(c) the Board of the former Agency shall become the Board of the Corporation and shall continue as such until other provision in that behalf is made under section 7 of this Act; and

(d) all officers of the former Agency shall become the corresponding officers of the Corporation and subject to the provisions of this Act or any regulations made thereunder, continue in office for the period for which they were appointed as officers of the former Agency.

(3) In this section "former Agency" means the Government Shareholding Agency established under the repealed Act.
