

Corrected Session of May 30th 1913.

Public Prosecutor v Jean Marie Hubert, Carpenter, of Mélé, charged with a breach of Article 59 of the Convention of October 20th 1906.

At 10 A.M. on May 30th 1913, the Joint Court composed of the President, Comt. Buena Esperanza; the French Judge, Jean, Colonna. the British Judge, T.E. Roseby; in presence of the Public Prosecutor, Comt. Andino; M^r Bengal, Registrar, recording; sitting in a simple police case, as a Court of first & last instance, after due deliberation, delivered the following judgment;

The Joint Court:

Having heard read the report drawn up on May 14th
by Comte and at Tonga; waiting for the defendant; Whereas by summons dated May 22nd last Hubert was summoned to appear before this Court for having caused to be supplied at the wine Boule of Pentecost a bottle of gin, at M^r Gabbay's store at Mélé on May 11th 1913;
At the hearing:

Whereas the accused though duly summoned has appeared neither in person nor by proxy; & whereas the default should be pronounced against him;
As follows:

Whereas the accused has confessed that he did, by a written note, authorize the wine Boule to be served at a Mélé shop with a bottle of gin; and whereas, although the delivery of the alcoholic liquor was not directly performed by the accused, the fact of allowing the shopkeeper to believe that the gin was for his (the defendant's) use, while it really was intended for the wine Boule, falls within the scope of
