SEA PORT DEPARTURE TAX (DOMESTIC SHIPS) BY-LAW

BYE-LAW NO. 1 OF 2014

This by-law is made by resolution of the Sanma Local Government Council pursuant to powers granted under the Decentralisation Act [Cap 230].

PART 1 – ADMINISTRATION

1. Objective

The objective of this by-law is to make provision for a tax to be paid by sheep owners and agents in respect of every passenger who departs at designated sea ports in the Sanma Province.

2. Interpretation

In this by-law, unless the context or the subject matter otherwise requires or indicates to the contrary:

Act means the Decentralisation Act [Cap 230]

Council means the Sanma Local Government Council

Council area means the area of the Sanma Local Government Region, pursuant to the Local Government Regions (Consolidation) Order No1 of 1996.

Domestic Vessel means a vessel travelling between any place in Vanuatu and any other places in Vanuatu, but does not include a vessel making a local voyage only.

Local voyage means a voyage of any duration where the vessel remains at all times within the waters of the Sanma Province.

Officer means an officer, employee or agent engaged by the Council

Owner in respect of a vessel includes every person acting as agent for the owner, or authorized to receive charges payable in respect of the vessel.

Passenger means any person carried on a domestic vessel for free or reward.

Relevant Agencies means the following Government Ministries of the Government of Republic of Vanuatu:

Ministry of Finance;

The ministry charged with providing good and efficient administration for the purposes of Local Government Councils established under the Act;

The Ministry charged with administering the Ports Act [Cap. 26], including any amendment or re-enactment thereof.

Sanma Seaport means a domestic sea port situated in the Council area, including;

- (a) NISCOL wharf;
- (b) Dinh Van Danh wharf;
- (c) Wong Sze Sing wharf;
- (d) Any wharf facility situated in rural areas, including Malo, Aore, Tutuba and other off-shore islands.

Seaport Departure Tax means the tax imposed pursuant to Section 3 of this by-law.

Seaport Departure Tax Liability means the total amount of Seaport Departure Tax owing in respect of a Domestic Vessel, calculated in accordance with Section 4 of this by-law.

PART 2 – IMPOSITION OF TAX

3. Seaport Departure Tax

(1) Subject to subsection (2), the owner or agent of every Domestic Vessel carrying passengers within the Council area shall pay a Seaport Departure Tax in respect of each passenger departing from Sanma Seaport.

(2) No Seaport Departure Tax shall be payable in respect of:

- a. Any passenger under 2 years of age;
- b. Any passenger in transit in any Sanma Seaport;
- c. Crew of any Domestic Vessel travelling on duty, including positioning crew;
- d. Any passenger travelling for urgent medical reasons and not more than two persons travelling accompanying, such passenger;

- e. Any passenger on a Domestic Vessel engaged in technical, meteorological, humanitarian or search and rescue activities;
- f. Any passenger being a person to whom any privileges or immunities are granted to the Diplomatic Privileges and Immunities Act [Cap 143];
- g. Any passenger on a Domestic Vessel being used for military, diplomatic or ceremonial purposes of the Government of any country;
- h. Any passenger on Domestic Vessel which has returned to, or landed in, a Sanma Seaport for emergency or technical reasons, who subsequently departs from the Seaport on the same or other vessel.

4. Amount of Seaport Departure Tax

(1) The amount of the Seaport Departure Tax shall be VT100 for each passenger carried on a Domestic Vessel.

(3) To determine the Seaport Departure Tax Liability in respect of a Domestic Vessel, an officer of the Council may request a record of all passengers carried on the vessel

(4) If the owner or the Captain of a Domestic Vessel does not produce records in accordance with Subsection (2), the Seaport Departure Tax Liability will be determined on the basis of the maximum number of passengers authorized to travel on the vessel.

PART 3 – COLLECTION OF TAX

5. Payment of tax

(1) The Seaport Departure Tax shall become due and payable immediately prior to departure of the Domestic Vessel.

(2) Subject to Section 6, at the end of each month, the owner shall pay the Seaport Departure Tax Liability in respect of each voyage of the Domestic Vessel during the previous month.

(3) Where the Seaport Departure Tax is not paid by or on behalf of the owner within 45 days of the due date, the Council shall recover the amount as a civil debt.

6. Collection of Tax

(1) After consultation with Relevant Agencies, the Council may issue written instructions or directions as to the payment and collection of the Seaport Departure Tax

(2) Despite anything in Section 5, Seaport Departure Tax is to be paid in accordance with any instructions or directions published under subsection (1).

PART 4 – MISCELLANEOUS

7. Commencement

This by-law shall come into force on the day of its publication in the Gazette.

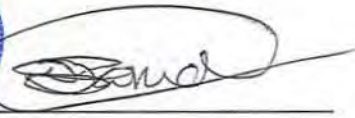

Endorsed by the Full Sanma Local Government Council Meeting
