SAMOAN STATUS ACT 1963

1963

No. 14

AN ACT to amend the laws as to Samoan status and as to eligibility to hold a matai title.

[Assent and commencement date: 19 December 1963]

1. Short title – This Act may be cited as the Samoan Status Act 1963.

2. Samoan custom and usage – This Act is in accord with Samoan custom and usage.

3. Interpretation – (1) In this Act and any other Act and Ordinance, unless the context otherwise requires, “Samoan” means a person who is a citizen of Samoa and has any Samoan blood.

(2) In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires: “Court” means the Samoan Land and Titles Court;

“land” means customary land;

“Registrar” means the Registrar of the Court.

4. Court may declare person a Samoan – The Court may, at any time and on the petition of any person, enquire and declare whether or not the petitioner, and his or her children under the age of 18 years, are Samoans, and effect shall be given to each such declaration for all purposes and in all Courts.

5. Register of Declared Samoans – (1) There shall be kept in the Court by the Registrar a “Register of Declared Samoans” in which shall be entered by the Registrar the full names and addresses of all persons declared by the Court to be Samoans, and the dates of such declarations.

(2) The Register may be inspected by any person at any time during office hours on payment of a fee of 20 sene.

6. Eligibility to hold a matai title – Subject to section 7, no person other than a Samoan shall be eligible:

- (a) to hold a matai title; or
- (b) to hold the pule over any land; or
- (c) to use any land as of right other than under any lease, licence or mortgage which may be permitted by any Act; or
- (d) to participate in the rents or profits of any land other than under any lease, licence or mortgage which may be permitted by any Act; or
- (e) to acquire any estate or interest in any land by virtue of any gift, devise or bequest, or otherwise than by virtue of any lease, licence or mortgage which may be permitted by any Act.

7. Status of matai titles already held by Europeans – If, at any time prior to the coming into force of this Act, a matai title was validly conferred on a person who was an European at the date of conferment, and that title was made a complimentary honour by the operation of section 8 of the Samoan Status Ordinance 1934, and that person is still holding that title on the coming into force of this Act, he or she shall hold that title thereafter, despite the repeal of that Ordinance, as a complimentary honour only.

8. Offences – Except as provided in section 7, a person other than a Samoan who permits a matai title to be conferred upon him or her, or uses a matai title in address, or permits himself or herself to be addressed by a matai title, or otherwise acts as the holder of a matai title, in breach of section 6, commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a penalty not exceeding 1 penalty unit.

9. Saving existing rights in land – Nothing in this Act affects any right in or over any land which may have been lawfully acquired before the commencement of this Act, whether or not in accordance with Samoan custom and usage.

10. Repeals and other savings – (1) The enactments set out in the First Schedule are repealed.

(2) The enactments set out in the Second Schedule cease to form part of the law of Samoa.

(3) Sections 19 and 20 of the Acts Interpretation Act 1974 apply to the enactments set out in the Second Schedule as if they had been repealed by this Act.
