THE TAXATION, LICENSING AND REVENUE AMENDMENT
ORDINANCE, 1924.

Western Samoa.

No. 2, 1924.

An Ordinance

made by the Administrator of the Territory of Western Samoa, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council of that Territory, and in pursuance of the Samoa Act, 1921.

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Taxation Licensing and Revenue Amendment Ordinance 1924 and shall be read together with and form part of the Taxation Licensing and Revenue Ordinance 1921 (hereinafter called the Principal Ordinance).

2. In any case where the Administrator is satisfied that the granting to any person of any new license, or the holding by any person of any existing license under the Principal Ordinance or under the Road Traffic Ordinance 1921, may prejudicially affect the Peace Order or good Government of the Territory, he may order that no such license shall be granted to that person or that such existing license shall be cancelled and such order shall take effect according to its tenor as from the date of such order or any later date specified therein.

3. (1) No person shall after the first day of April 1924 be engaged in the business of conducting any store as defined in Clause 34 of the Principal Ordinance without a license to be called a store license and the provisions of part IV of the Principal Ordinance shall apply accordingly to stores and store licenses.

(2) No fee shall be payable for a store license.

(3) Notwithstanding Clause 36 of the Principal Ordinance nothing in this clause shall affect the liability of any person to pay store tax.

Assented to this nineteenth day of March, 1924.

[L.S.] GEO. S. RICHARDSON,
Administrator.
